

CONDITIONS

Information and Communication Technologies

Summer term 2019/2020

Groups: 4 and 6 BBA (Bachelor of Business and Administration)

I. Course instructor: mgr Rafał Skibicki

II. Unit: Centrum Badań Problemów Prawnych i Ekonomicznych Komunikacji Elektronicznej (CBKE)

E-mail: rafal.skibicki@uwr.edu.pl

Office hours:

When? Mondays: 10.30 – 11.30; Wednesdays: 14.15 – 15.15

Where? 004D (CBKE)

III. Learning materials will be given through the exercises.

IV. Schedule/Syllabus:

1. The organisation of the classes

2. How to find sources of European and Polish law – <https://e-justice.europa.eu/home.do>

- a. Law,
- b. Case Law,
- c. Legalis/Lex translator and Lex instytucje,
- d. Google Translator and automated translations.

3. How to get business information in EU? – <https://e-justice.europa.eu/home.do>

- a. Land registries,
- b. Business registries,
- c. Legal practitioners,
- d. Insolvency registries.

4. Computerization of the state

- a. E-court (e.g. electronic writ of payment)
- b. E-government

- c. E-signature and trust services.

5. Electronic contracts

- a. Typology,
- b. Concluding,
- c. Performance,
- d. A Consumer in the digital realm.

6. IP throughout the EU:

- a. Trade marks,
- b. Trade mark databases (TmView, eSearch)
- c. Trade mark on the Internet,
- d. Computer programs,
- e. Communication to the public,
- f. Exhaustion of the distribution right.

7. Legal aspects of digital platforms

- a. ISP liability,
- b. Digital Single Market,
- c. Digital content,
- d. Social media,
- e. Omnibus directive (2019/2161).

8. Data protection in the EU

- a. Personal data protection,
- b. Non-personal data protection.

9. Legal aspects of new technologies

- a. AI,
- b. blockchain,
- c. ML.

10. Final lesson (assessment and improving grades)

V. Conditions for passing (the following are required together):

1. Presence

- Presence is mandatory,
- 1 absence allowed.

- Passing the absence
2. Activity: For his/her positive activity during the classes student could be awarded by the instructor with a plus affecting the final grade. Three pluses are equal to half of the grade.

For his/ her negative activity during the classes students could receive minus lowering the final grade by a half.

3. Presentation on the exercises (grades from 3 to 4) and writing a scientific paper (max. 15.000 marks, Times new roman, 12, leading 1.5 with footnotes; grades from 4.5 to 5) on a topic related to the subject and accepted by the instructor at the first classes.

VI. Final grade:

1. 100% presence + presentation = 3 - 4
2. 100% presence + presentation + scientific paper= 4.5 or 5

VII. The student has the right to improve the grade once only by approaching the oral answer in the last class.